Message from the Commodore,

As of October 1, 2005, our Chairman of the Nominating Committee for next year's officers and Trustees posted the nominated slate at the Yacht Club. This slate of nominees and plus nominations from the floor will be voted on at the Election Party on November 19, 2005 at the Fiesta Hotel in Henderson, Nevada. This event is very important to our organization and your vote on the officers and trustees will help determine the course of the Lake Mead Yacht Club. Please plan to attend. The price per person for Yacht Club members will be $50.00. Additional reservation information will be in the next Waterlog.

The officers and directors have adopted a policy of pricing for parties and special events that creates a discount for all yacht club members who will RSVP in a timely fashion versus non-members. This written policy was created to assist future party hosts in their budgeting process. Those individuals who may consider hosting events next year should contact the Vice-Commodore for assistance with the new policy.

Your Commodore has established a new committee that is charged with the responsibility of presenting a plan and a budget for our new facility. Those members on the committee are Brent Thompson, Max Butterworth, Corwon Finley, Al Garraway, Tom Scherer, and myself. We have received from the Forever Resorts management an estimated cost of a platform that would be needed for a structure. A report will be made to the general membership at the election party.

Jim Lang

DUES DUES DUES

DUES are due and payable by January 1st, 2006. We want you back, so please watch for your statement, and if you have any changes for the roster, do so then. Thank you.

1. Bump Elliot from Callville Marina attended the meeting. On October 22nd a clean up under water is scheduled and they need help above water from 8-2pm, check in 8am at Callville-free lunch. This is the day of our party so anyone that can help please do. They are also having a costume party Oct. 29th, $5.00 cover charge includes appetizers. Please join them. Bump mentioned they are changing the entrance to our boats by use of a bridge. Marty will head up a group to handle the pump out and fuel dock situation to accommodate the yacht club. He also has ideas about our Luau—we work way too hard!! and will get with Gary Weinberg to discuss his ideas.
2. Facilities director Bob Cox says if you take some, bag some – ice that is.
3. Ships store guy Corwon Finley says we are having a BLOW OUT sale at the yacht club Sunday morning, October 23rd at 10 am. Come by, have a bloody mary or two, it's a blue lite special day! Also, if you have anything on your boat that does not belong to you, this is the time to get rid of it.
4. The nominating committee has posted their slate at the Yacht Club.
5. Remember November 19th is the election party and general membership meeting at the Fiesta Hotel in Henderson & January 21st, 2006 is the installation at the Blue Water Marina & Resort in Parker, AZ.

Luau 2005 party report

What a weekend, the weather hed, the moon was full and the beach was great which made for a perfect weekend, so Clevelle and I hope everyone had a good time as you yacht club members and guests made it happen.

The Saturday before, we started loading the barge, then on Wednesday the rental boat with the help of Jim Lang, Joan Kilburn, Steve Jones, Dave Dobbins, Gary Weinberg, Mike Pearce, Tom Tedder, Max Butterworth & Ed Oliver. Marty Schwartzer & Steve Jones took the barge up an Jim & Gary, the houseboat. On Thursday, the members started to arrive and helped pitch in to set up the canopies and tables with Brent Thompson serving his Bloody Marys. John Keith led the way in the canopy set up aided by Jim, Gary, Steve, Dave, Max, Danny Williams, Mark Enzweiler, Bill Bauer & Doug. Of course, Steve Jones with his injured leg, when not helping somewhere, was limping up and down the beach parking boats and doing a superb job.

Friday again, started off with Bloody Marys with the guys from Thursday as well as Mark Mattson, Tom Tedder & Bob Gatewood setting up lights, etc. Then Kathy Keith, MB Weinberg, Pat Butterworth & Tamara Bauer pitched in to set up tables for the potluck. That night my chefs arrived, Ray Gries and his buddy Kenny, who cooked the hamburgers and hot dogs and cut up all the tomatoes for the potluck and what a potluck. Joey Wilson's dad brought 8 trays of homemade lasagna to compliment the array of great food brought by you members. DJ Bob Sloan provided the music for dancing and even had an amateur stage show.

The big day finally arrived and I had a pleasant surprise Saturday morning—the beach was clean, the tables cleared and the garbage ready to be taken to Temple Bar Marina. The tables and canopies for the night were then decorated under the creative guidance of Judy Dobbins with help from Pat, Kathy, MB, Mel & Joan. At noon registration started, managed by Nancy Jordan and assisted by Cindy McClure. Clothing sales were handled by Joan and MB. All the children had fun as Jenny Dermer led the children's games assisted by Tina. Geno Hill was our auctioneer for the horserace with Charlie & Collette Barker, Mike Pearce, Sally Gatewood and Diane Chimko, his able helpers. And the winner was Marilyn Kruse on horse #6 owned by guess who—Chuck Kruse & Geno Hill. That evening the big dinner with help from Mel, MB, Judy & Pat in preparing the salad and boats Hotel Ohio, Dog House, Captain's Call, Scherer Delight, the houseboat and Silco O Fun cooking the prime ribs and chicken marsala. Ray & Kenny cooked away preparing the baked potatoes & steamed Caribbean veggies, with Karen & Mark Mattson and Joey Wilson helping put it all together on the tables. Geno carved and Judy, Dave, MB and Mark helped serve and re-stock the dishes.

Music by DJ Bob was played throughout the day. Marcia Krause & Evan Pearce did the job they know best—selling raffle tickets and Jim, Gary and Corwon handling the raffle itself. Judges for the beach decorations Sally & Bob Gatewood and John Keith declared "Nautius" the winner. Now this Irene Jones and her crew knew how to turn their beach into a Hawaiian setting with tiki bar, torches, a get-a-way car and even a volcano that spit fire. Very impressive. Hotel Ohio came in a close second. Congrats to these members for all their effort. Following dinner we all danced until the late hours. Oh, what a night!!

Sunday morning again was Bloody Marys and Mimosas served up by Brent with made-to-order eggs prepared by Geno & Mark, ham by Dave Lyden, hash browns by Chuck Kruse and biscuits & gravy by Ray and Kenny.

Following breakfast all the men, all the men!!! helped take down lights, tents, tables, chairs and pack up garbage and load all on the barge. Steve Jones motored the barge and Jim and Gary the houseboat back to Callville and were met by the crew of Joan, MB, Mark E, Ed Oliver, Dave D and Tom T to help dump the trash and unload. All was cleaned and put away in its proper place. Thanks! Thanks! Thanks! Also the biggest thanks to all the above-mentioned members who really pitched in to help in all phases of this party.

Thanks to Randy Roundtree and the Marina for helping arrange for the houseboat and deck boat, Hamad, Erin & Garrett for tending bar, Tony from West Marine for their raffle donations, Mel and All Garraway for donating the houseboat, Steve Thielman for liquor, Gene Krause for meats and salads as he has done for so many past parties, and my lovely wife Clevelle for helping with everything, she just wouldn't stop working even with her injured arm.

We hope everyone had a terrific time, without you it wouldn't be a party.

Tom & Clevelle

Hey, Tom and Clevelle, you guys were the best. A big thank you from everyone for coordinating this annual event. A huge undertaking-over 150 paid bodies and all your helpers were willing and able and did a great job, too. Thanks, again!
