Message from the Commadore,

Just when you thought we had overcome all of the hardships that had been brought on by the low water level of the lake, you find out there is more to come. The lower the lake, the higher the sewer has to be pumped. Volunteer members with some help from a couple of Marina employees earned their "Norton" badges while finishing in time to return the club facilities to proper working order prior to the Past Commadore's Party. Speaking of past commadorea, didn't all of the "old guys" look good? Some of them can even still raise their voices! Last month we spoke of change being synonymous with The Yacht Club. This month we have the pleasure of addressing a part of the Club that does not change, and that is our members that donate their time, energies and resources to the less fortunate. The Nevada Yacht Club organized The Leukemia Regatta to raise funds for the fight against cancer. Mr. Geno Hill picked up the ball in the name of the Lake Mead Yacht Club and provided The Wet Bar as the VIP Boat for the Regatta. On behalf of the membership, my hat is off to you Geno. Thanks for being our representative. You always make us look good. Last item, if you want to drink your margarita in the glow of a neon palm tree, The Ship's Store is the place to shop.

Corwon J. Finley
